

ARTISTS AND ART

A display of art work by Quebec artist Antoine Dumas opened this week at the Laurentian Museum and Arts Centre. Talking with the artist second from left, is Marie Poulin, left, director of Radio Canada, Sudbury; local artists, Luc Robert, second from right and Bernard Poulin, right. The Dumas display runs until March 1. Dumas painting which has been described as "figurative in style," conveys a sharp perception of people.